SYLLABUS

“Music and Monarchy”

A survey class designed to familiarize OLLI members with British royal history as told through its music. The course will include video presentations produced by the BBC and narrated by Charles Hazelwood, Simon Russell Beale and David Starkey. Supplemental material will include musical selections and commentary by the OLLI coordinator. The historical span under consideration will begin with Henry V and move forward into the current reign of Elizabeth II.

Summer 2019
Tuesdays
11:00am-12:45pm

Philip Koslow, Coordinator
philip.koslow@yahoo.com

June 4  Music and Monarchy-“Crown and Choir”
June 11 Thomas Tallis, William Byrd and the Tudors
June 18 Music and Monarchy- “Revolutions”
June 25 Henry Purcell-“The Londoner”
July 2  Music and Monarchy-“Great British Music”
July 9  G.F. Handel-“The Conquering Hero”
July 16 Felix Mendelssohn-“The Prophet”
July 23 Music and Monarchy-“Re-inventions”